Well, here's the second bundle of Chibi Miku-san, the first few pages featured 'Black Rock Shooter' it's a creation of Huke, who is a member of the Japanese Band Super Cell. There was some history behind it that tied it with the Vocaloids according to some articles I have read about Black Rock Shooter is that Huke used the Vocaloid 2 system (Hatsune Miku) as the voice to sing the band's compositions. The videos created using Miku's voice gained popularity when release in Nico nico Douga (the Japanese counterpart of YouTube) and it now has an OVA.

I hope you enjoyed reading!
